CANSSI Distinguished Visitor Program

Visits typically include scientific lecture(s), public lecture(s), and interactions with graduate students. CANSSI will provide up to $2,000 for honorarium and travel expenses. Co-funding by university, department and hosts is typical.

The application should include the following information:

1. Name, current and any significant former positions of the proposed visitor
2. Field of research of the proposed visitor
3. Proposed dates and location for the visit
4. One-paragraph description of the scientific rationale
5. Proposed schedule of visit and talk(s) and student interaction(s)
6. Proposed budget for travel and accommodation, including information on cofunding

Submit your application by email at canssi_sc@sfu.ca

Applicants are requested to arrange for recording of the lecture, to provide CANSSI with a link to the lecture, and to submit a short written report on the event. Applicants are encouraged to obtain local funding for a social event. CANSSI will work with the local organizers to ensure that it is widely advertised and that CANSSI sponsorship is appropriately acknowledged.

Applications should be submitted at least three months before the proposed visit. Decisions will be made by the Associate Directors in consultation with the Deputy Director and the Director.
