

Assistant Professor Data Science
Department Mathematics and Statistics
College of Engineering and Physical Sciences
University of Guelph
Requisition 1120

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics at the University of Guelph invites applications for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level. The successful candidate is expected to support the development of our proposed undergraduate program in Data Science. The anticipated start date of the position is 1 July 2025, or another mutually agreed-upon date in 2025.

The successful applicant should or will have a Ph.D. in mathematics, statistics, or a closely related area. They should have an established record of, or potential to develop, an independent program of research with global impact funded by Canadian and international agencies (e.g. NSERC) leading to international recognition. Applicants must have the inspiration and ability to supervise undergraduate research projects and graduate students.

It is expected that the candidate will develop and offer undergraduate courses related to data science and to broadly contribute to the teaching mandate of the department at the undergraduate level including courses in both the Mathematical Sciences major and service courses. It is expected that a successful candidate would have a teaching load equivalent to three courses per year.

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics is housed in the College of Engineering and Physical Sciences at the University of Guelph. We are an active and dynamic group of researchers and educators working in a wide range of fields in mathematics and statistics. We are proud to offer both undergraduate and graduate degree programs to help prepare students for careers in Mathematical Science.

The University of Guelph resides on the traditional lands and territory of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee and Huron Wendat. These lands are now home to a rich diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Métis people. We offer our respect and gratitude to our Indigenous neighbours and affirm our responsibility to realize our commitments to reconciliation through ongoing action. We are guided in this work by Bi-Naagward | It Comes into View, the Indigenous Initiatives Strategy.

The University of Guelph is the third largest employer in Guelph, a city of approximately 144,000 people, located about an hour drive west of Toronto, Ontario. University of Guelph is a top-ranked comprehensive university in Canada with an enrolment of more than 30,000 undergraduate and graduate students across over 40 academic units. The University is known for its commitment to student learning, innovative research, and collaboration with world-class partners. It is a unique place, with transformative research and teaching and a distinctive campus culture. People who learn and work here are shaped and inspired by a shared purpose: To Improve Life. Reflecting that shared purpose in every experience connected to our university positions us to create positive change, here and around the world. Our university community shares a profound sense of social responsibility, a drive for international development, and an obligation to address global issues.
